REGISTRATION FEE - $5.00 for Newark residents and non-residents alike.

WHAT IS THIS WORKSHOP?

Not so — the more we make them work, the Samples will be our World position

The Workshop is a group experience in learning, working and thinking through problems together, toward the goal of resolving some of the difficulties in Human Relations which becloud man's understanding of his fellow man.

HOW WILL THE COURSE BE CONDUCTED?

Individual sessions will be so arranged as to give each participant maximum opportunity to have his questions answered and problems considered through the process of informal group discussion. The moderator will be the discussion leader. Expert consultants will clarify issues and offer practical advice toward the solution of problems. Actual community issues will be considered and worked on by means of the group process - thinking through the problem together and arriving at a mutually satisfactory and acceptable solution. More than half of each two hour session will be devoted to this kind of group discussion.

SPONSORSHIP

This ten session Workshop in Group Relations Problems is co-sponsored by the West Side Adult School and the Mayor's Commission on Group Relations of Newark, N.J.
